9.1. A candidate who fails may be permitted to take the examination in the Part or Parts in which he fails. He shall pay a fee of Rs. 56 on each occasion. The permission shall be subject to the following conditions :

(i) (a) ***

(b) If the candidate fails in the internal assessment of Part III, he shall have to rejoin the college for a period to be determined by the Principal subject to a minimum of one month, in order to qualify in the internal assessment of Part III. If he passes in the internal assessment, he shall be deemed to have passed the examination in Part III.

(ii) If he fails only in one paper of Part I, he may be permitted to re-appear in that paper at the supplementary examination, and the next annual examination, provided he has obtained at least 20 per cent marks in the paper in which he has failed and 40 per cent in the aggregate of all the papers. Such a candidate shall pay a fee of Rs. 56/- on each occasion. If he passes in that paper in either of those examinations, he shall be deemed to have passed the examination in Part I.

5. Regulation 26.1 relating to Moderation of Question Papers and Results of examinations, at page 23 of Calendar Volume II, 1973, shall read as under :—

26.1. A candidate who appears in all subjects of an examination and who fails in one or more subjects (written, practical, sessional or viva voce) and/or the aggregate (if there is a separate requirement of passing in the aggregate) shall be given grace marks up to maximum of 1% of the total aggregate marks (excluding marks for internal assessment) to make up the deficiency, if by such addition the candidate can pass the examination. While awarding grace marks fraction working to $\frac{1}{4}$ or more will be rounded to a whole.

Exception (i) In the case of B.D.S. examination, however, the grace marks shall be given up to one per cent of the total marks of each subject, and not up to one per cent of the aggregate of all the subjects. In other words each subject will be, for the purpose, a separate unit, and a candidate who fails in a subject by not more than one per cent of the aggregate marks of that subject may be given the required number of marks in order to pass in that subject.

(ii) For M.B.B.S. examinations, no grace marks will be awarded.

6. Revised Regulations for B.Sc. Engineering Examinations in Aeronautical, Chemical, Civil, Electrical, Electronics & Electrical Communication, Mechanical, Metallurgical, Production Engineering and Production Engineering (Sandwich), shall read as under :—

(To come into force from the Session 1974-75. These Regulations will apply to all the classes).

1. The duration of the course of instruction for B.Sc. degree in Engineering in any of the disciplines will be 4 years except for Production Engineering (Sandwich) which will be of 4½ years. The teaching period will be divided in 8 semesters of approximately 15 weeks each but for Production Engineering (Sandwich) it will be 9 semesters of approximately 15 weeks each.

2. The subjects to be studied in each semester will be as per scheme of examination indicating the minimum number of lectures to be delivered, distribution of marks in written examination, practical examination, viva voce examination, internal assessment, sessionals, etc. for each subject. The medium of instructions and examination will be English.

3. The admission to the First semester course in any branch will be open to a candidate who has passed the Pre-Engineering examination of the Panjab University with not less than 50 per cent marks in the aggregate of Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics and English, or B.Sc. Part I of the Panjab University with not less than 55 per cent marks in the aggregate of Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics and at least 40 per cent marks in additional optional English, or the B.Sc. examination of the Panjab University with not less than 50 per cent marks in the aggregate of Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics with English as optional subject. A candidate who has passed an examination equivalent to the above examinations of the Panjab University with English as a compulsory/optional subject of the equivalent examination, will also be eligible for admission under the admission Regulations of the University.

4. Each semester examination will be held twice a year in the month of November/December and April/May or on such other dates as may be fixed by the Syndicate.

5. In order to be eligible to sit for an examination for a subject (Theory or practical) a candidate must produce a certificate from the Head of the Chemical Engineering Department/Principals of the Engineering Colleges that he has attended at least 75 per cent of the lectures/tutorials and practicals/drawings, etc. delivered/conducted for the subject. For every hour per week of a subject shown in the Schedule of teaching there will be at least 10 lectures/practicals delivered/conducted during the semester.

6. The Head of the Chemical Engineering Department/Principals of Engineering Colleges will have the power to condone the shortage of attendance upto 10 per cent only per subject on the merit of the case.

7. A candidate who does not fulfil the attendance requirements in any subject will have to repeat the course of instruction in that subject.

8. A candidate will be allowed to join the fifth, sixth, seventh or eighth semester class only after he has passed in all subjects prescribed for the first, second third or fourth semester, respectively. For B.S., Production Engineering (Sandwich), a candidate will be allowed to join ninth semester after he has cleared the fifth semester.

9. (a) A candidate who is appearing in a particular semester examination for the first time will be allowed to appear in addition to the regular papers prescribed for the semester in a maximum of ten subjects of lower semester/semesters of which not more than 5 should be theory subjects.

(b) If a candidate is appearing only in subjects in which he has already appeared and failed, or did not appear though he was eligible to appear, he will be allowed to offer a total of ten theory subjects and ten practical subjects in any particular examination, as a regular/casual/late college student.

10. A candidate will be deemed to have passed in a subject if he obtains the following minimum marks :—

(a) 40 per cent in examination marks if a University examination is prescribed; and

(b) 50 per cent in internal assessment/sessional marks.

11. If a candidate fails in the examination part of a subject he will have to reappear in that part in a subsequent examination. If a candidate fails in internal assessment/sessionals he will be required to improve his internal assessment/sessional marks by doing extra work to the satisfaction of the Head of the Department provided that this improvement can be only upto 50 per cent marks.

12. The internal assessment and sessional marks submitted by the teacher concerned will be scrutinised by a committee which will have the powers to moderate the marks before submitting to the University. The Committee shall be appointed by the University on the recommendations of the Conveners of the various Boards of Studies in Engineering except Chemical Engineering. For the Department of Chemical Engineering, the Board of Control will also carry out the functions of this Committee of moderators for internal assessment.

13. A detailed marks card will be issued for each semester. A candidate will be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Engineering on passing all the subjects prescribed for the degree.

14. The divisions will be awarded as follows :

(a) those who obtain 70 per cent or more of the total aggregate marks—First Division with Honours.

Provided each subject has been cleared at the first attempt (i.e. first time a candidate has actually sat for the subject in the University examination).

(b) those who obtain 60 per cent and above but less than 70 per cent of the total aggregate marks—First Division.

(c) those who obtain less than 60 per cent of the total aggregate marks—Second Division.

15. Separate admission forms for subjects belonging to different semesters are to be filled by the candidate indicating subject/subjects offered for each semester examination. Fee for appearing at each semester examination will be as follows :

1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th semester	Rs. 50/-
5th, 6th, 7th and 8th semester	Rs. 60/-
9th semester for Production Engineering (Sandwich)	Rs. 60/-

A candidate appearing in one or more subjects or papers shall pay the same admission fee as prescribed for the semester concerned.
